

5 ways to build your brand using Reputada's micro-feedback platform

01

Reputada Reputation Page™ credential:

Customer feedback that you choose is made publicly visible. The credential displays your business rating, Customer Review accolades and the select customer quotes.

02

Prospective customers discover your Customer Reputation through search:

We automate the process of indexing your Reputada Customer Reputation with major search engines (Google, Bing)

04

Your website stays updated with latest customer accolades:

Website testimonials are so 'Web 1.0', so add the Reputada Widget to your website to make the latest feedback available for everyone to see.

03

Share select customer feedback through social networks:

05

Customer Reputation on your business card:

Let everyone know your business takes customer satisfaction seriously.
